

Group of Leading Immigration Professionals Including Daryl Buffenstein and Bo Cooper Join Forces with Fragomen

New York, Feb. 28, 2012 -- Fragomen, the world's leading corporate immigration law firm, is pleased to announce that a group of internationally renowned immigration lawyers, including Daryl Buffenstein and Bo Cooper of the Atlanta and Washington, D.C. offices of Berry, Appleman & Leiden respectively, will join Fragomen.

Austin T. Fragomen, Chairman of Fragomen's Executive Committee said, "We've known Daryl and Bo for decades, and have the highest level of respect for their work. Their technical excellence and commitment to clients match perfectly with our own firm's values. We welcome Daryl, Bo and the rest of their colleagues to our firm."

Daryl Buffenstein said, "Joining forces with Fragomen allows us to continue our long-standing commitment to partnering closely with our clients and evolving with their needs. We are excited to be able to leverage the significant additional resources that make up the Fragomen platform on a worldwide basis."

Buffenstein, Deborah Marlowe and Kyle Sherman, all of Atlanta, will lead the opening of Fragomen's Atlanta office in the coming month. At the same time, the Government Relations and Compliance practice group led by Bo Cooper will join forces with Fragomen's already distinguished organization in Washington, D.C.
