

919.) Hausfeld LLP now asks to be designated as Co-Lead Counsel in place of Cohen Milstein. (Doc. No. 918.)

3. At today's hearing, Cohen Milstein withdrew its opposition to Hausfeld LLP's representation of Columbare. Accordingly, it is now undisputed that Hausfeld LLP represents Columbare, Inc.
4. There are lawyers at both Cohen Milstein and Hausfeld LLP who have considerable experience and expertise in this matter, albeit in different roles. As I indicated at the hearing, I believe the Direct Purchaser Class would be best served if both firms served as Co-Lead Counsel, with Spector, Roseman, Kodroff & Willis, P.C. as Lead Counsel.
5. Accordingly, paragraph 10 of the June 2, 2006 Case Management Order (Doc. No. 83) is amended to include Hausfeld LLP as Co-Lead Counsel.
6. Concern was expressed at today's hearing as to whether the lawyers from Hausfeld LLP and Cohen Milstein could work together without acrimony. As I then stated, I am confident that these lawyers understand their obligations to their clients and will work together in their clients' best interests. Should any difficulties arise, however, I direct Lead Counsel to inform me immediately so that I can take appropriate action.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
